December 5, 2012 - www.tripadvisor.com - "Great time in cabin"

-5 out of 5 stars

"My son and I recently stayed in the smaller cabin and we were delighted by our experience. We stayed over the Thanksgiving holiday, we had family also camping nearby in a campsite. The cabin was clean and neat and a great place to relax while visiting all the fun things to do in Williamsburg. Anvil is very conveniently located to everywhere we wanted to visit.

Yes, the trains did seem a bit close to the cabin! But they actually made for a fun thing to laugh about. After the first night they did not seem as bad. The trains would not deter me from visiting Anvil again."

November 29, 2012 - www.tripadvisor.com - "enjoyed our stay"

-4 out of 5 stars

"Stayed at Anvil in Mid Oct 2012 while visiting Williamsburg. Great location as it is on the bus route and we didn't have a car in tow. The staff was very friendly and the park was quite clean and well maintained. A special shout out to Raymond who was very helpful to us during our stay, the only issue was the close proximity to the railroad tracks. But after a busy day of sightseeing, we never seemed to hear the trains. We would never hesitate to go back."

November 26, 2012 - www.tripadvisor.com - "Very nice stay!"

-5 out of 5 stars

"We stayed at Anvil Campground in mid-October for our Colonial Williamsburg trip. The campground is very well kept and was full most of our weeklong visit. It was easy to find, convenient location, close to restaurants and shopping. The staff was very helpful and took care of issues quickly. This will be our go-to campground when visiting the Williamsburg area again. We have referred friends there as well."

November 23, 2012 - www.tripadvisor.com - "Anvil Campground Williamsburg VA"

-4 out of 5 stars

"Great campground when visiting Williamsburg, VA. Easy to find, convenient to public transportation. We have stayed at the Anvil Campground 3 times. Twice we did not take a tow vehicle. You can catch a public bus right at the entrance to the campground and take it to the transportation center where you can either walk in to colonial Williamsburg or take another bus to any of the other attractions. The rates are very reasonable. The staff is courteous and always knowledgeable and accommodating. I highly recommend this campground.

PS-- you don't hear the train once you get use to it."

November 21, 2012 - www.tripadvisor.com - "Nice campground, good location"

-5 out of 5 stars

"This is a very nice campground. It is small and it is well maintained. The bathrooms are very clean. The location is the best of all campgrounds in Williamsburg. The office/store staff are extremely friendly and helpful. Would recommend you check it out. We have been here twice this year, April and October."

November 21, 2012 - www.tripadvisor.com - "Our stay in the campground"

-4 out of 5 stars

"We have stayed at this campground many times. It is a good location that is close to all the places that we like to visit in the area. We also have brought other friends to stay here and they too liked the experience. The train isn't as bad as I thought it would be. Associates are very friendly and willing to give directions to nearby places."

November 21, 2012 - www.tripadvisor.com - "Convenient to all attractions"

-4 out of 5 stars

"We recently stayed in the blacksmith cottage at the Anvil Campground. The cottage was cozy and had everything we needed for our stay. The campground is conveniently located in between Colonial Williamsburg, the Outlets and various other attractions. The staff was very friendly. We would definitely stay here again."

"My husband and I stayed at Anvil Campground we enjoyed our stay and we would recommend it to a friend. It is conveniently situated close to the outlets(2 minutes) and Busch Gardens(10 minutes). The employees are very friendly especially the maintenance man who shortly after we had settled he checked to see if everything was alright and offered his help if we needed anything. Everyone makes you feel like home. The next time we visit the area we will reserve there."

September 3, 2012 - www.tripadvisor.com - "Wonderful location, great people"

-5 out of 5 stars

"We stayed at Anvil campground mid August 2012 and absolutely enjoyed our experience. As Jo K stated Michael, as well as the whole staff were very attentive to make everyone in the campground comfortable. Our daughters were able to ride their bikes around the campground and enjoy the pool with other children in the campground. As for the train our spot was about 100 yards from the tracks next to the road but it didn't bother us a bit. Anvil is very centrally located to shopping, restaurants, and colonial Williamsburg. I would definitely recommend this campground to anyone and our local boy scout is already considering a trip there next year"

-5 out of 5 stars

"It was our first time at Anvil campground and I must say the whole experience was a positive one. The staff couldn't have been more helpful or friendly. Michael, the attendant went out of his way for us to move a picnic table and upon seeing us at any given time was always friendly, smiling, and asking if there was anything we needed. There is a train that runs through there frequently but it's a minor distraction and well worth the little bit of noise for all the ammenities you get there. It's so close to all the attractions, shopping, & restaurants you couldn't possibly ask for more. It was our first time there and I can assure you it won't be our last. Site was very clean and ample. We found everyone there to be extremely friendly."

"We enjoyed our stay at your campground and the train was not a problem. We were especially pleased with how pleasant all staff we came in contact with were. We were traveling with grandchildren so they enjoyed the pool in the evenings and we chose you because of you being on the bus line which let us leave the car at home (we were in a motor home) and still be able to get around to what we had come to see at a very reasonable price. Thanks for caring and checking with customers."

"Before we left for our trip I read the reviews of Anvil Campground. I actually decided not to stay there because of comments about the train. Well we ended up there after all and it was actually very nice. Since it was extremely hot when we were there we had our air conditioner on. Therefore we didn't really hear the train. However, even when we were outside it wasn't really that bothersome to us. The staff was very friendly and the grounds were very clean. We were only there a couple of nights but we would go back to this campground."

"Very nice place for people in their sixties. Small, quaint, close proximity to all the amenities of a campground.

Just a short walk or bike ride to major shopping & restaurants. The shuttle was the main reason we picked Anvil Campground from the Woodall book. The train never bothered me. I liked the noise from the train; it reminded me of my childhood.

Thank You,"

"We stayed at Anvil for the first two weeks of July 2012. We knew before booking that there was a train track very close but we didn't care because after a few trains you hardly notice things like that. It was very hot the first week and it was great that the pool was open early, 8 am and there is a wonderful, safe walking trail you can walk to.

We visited Busch Gardens and the water park and just driving around Williamsburg is pure joy. The outlet malls are close by and every kind of restaurant you can want. The camp is very well run and friendly helpful staff. Lori, Ken and Cate T"

"We stayed in one of their standard back in sites that back up to the tracks. We were there for 5 days and the trains never bothered us at all... but the pool was immaculate and all 3 play areas kept our 6 yr old entertained ... Being on the Williamsburg public bus line is convenient ...You can't beat the price though. The most outstanding element of this family run and family friendly park is the staff. They were all truly excellent. We would gladly stay here again. We camped here in a Motorhome."

July 2012 - www.google.com - Jim R.:

"We have stayed at Anvil a couple of times. Yes there are train tracks right next to the campground, but it did not bother us. We also went to a college that was right next to a train track as well. It brought back memories. the campground is very clean and not that far away from Busch Gardens. We like staying here and look forward to staying there again soon."

-5 out of 5 stars

"Every time we come to Williamsburg we stay at Anvil campground. That would be about 15 times. We like it because it is so close to everything. The staff is helpful and friendly. The facilities are great. And love the free internet. After the first night, you do not notice the trains. We keep coming back!!"

July 19, 2012 - www.tripadvisor.com - "Beautiful and Convenient"

"The fact that the bus stops at the park and will take you to everything to see and do in the area is magnificent. It is inexpensive and Sooo much better than trying to drive and park at the attractions. The sites are large and shady. The pool and bathhouse are kept clean and the staff is wonderfully friendly and helpful. We have been returning there for three years now, I only wish we had found it sooner."

"Anvil campground is our pick of places to camp in Williamsburg. Location, location, location!!! The facilities are great too. Sure, there are a couple of coal trains that rumble thru during the night, but they are a minor annoyance and after the first one you don't even pay them any mind. The people and service are great too!"

"Good morning,

Thank you for the e-mail and I did enjoy staying at your campground. All your staff was very friendly and willing to help. The campground and bathrooms were very clean. The sites had plenty of room and I had excellent power the whole visit. The train was not a problem after a few passes it just reminded me when I grew up I loved hearing trains. The campground is in a very good location and the rates were excellent for the Williamsburg area. I plan to stay at your campground several time this year as I work in the area and visit family. Keep caring about your customers and I look forward to see improvements during my next visit."

"...What I really liked:

The staff were very friendly and helpful. The registration was easy and check-in was great. The staff even refunded the portion of one of our adults who chose to get an adjacent site and pay for themselves. Your store had everything we needed and the staff member (I forgot her name but she had an arm cast) even called around to find recycling/refill places for our camp stove propane.

We had teenagers who loved the pool and playground. The spinning thing with the ropes was a big hit. The game room was fun after hours. One of our students was very excited there was a basketball court.

INTERNET ACCESS!!!!!!!!!!

Loved that you had recycling cans available.

Cleanest and most efficient campground laundry facilities ever. (a comfy chair would make it just about perfect!)

The bathrooms and showers were sparkling clean..."

July 2012 - www.google.com - Laura W.:

"We stayed at Anvil in 2010 and 2011 in October. The amenities are as described, the area is clean, the staff is helpful and cheerful. Yes, there is a train. NO, it was not all that bothersome. In fact, both my husband and I slept very well every night. I was injured the first trip and the staff was superb in their help. We had to leave early and they cheerfully refunded our money. The location is second to none. No car? No problem - the bus stops at the campground! Need info? they have it! Need tickets? They sell them. I would highly recommend Anvil to anyone visiting the Williamsburg area. i would definitely stay there again. We camped in a motorhome."

"The staff were first rate with great information on the area and discounted tickets for attractions. We had seen reviews with people complaining about the train but knowing it was nearby, it really didn't bother us and didn't last long when a train did come by. The campground is very clean and the best located for the area attractions. Our 5th wheel is huge (40' with 4 slides) and it fit on our site with plenty of room remaining for a campfire and relaxing outside. It was a bit tricky getting level on our site but we managed. We would definitely stay here again."

"We stayed here for a long weekend and thoroughly enjoyed our trip. The staff was very friendly and helpful. The sites were small and close, but adequate, fairly level, and nicely shaded. Getting in and out was easy. Every thing was clean and well maintained. The pool was small, but so is the campgrounds, so it was never too crowded. The location was GREAT since it's close to all the local attractions. We would definitely stay here again when visiting Busch Gardens and Williamsburg. I would have given it a higher rating if the sites were larger, there were planned activities, and the playgrounds included a little more than standard backyard equipment. But really, in this area, there's so much to do that we didn't really miss those things and wouldn't have used them if they were there. Kids can't wait to go back! We camped here in a Travel Trailer. "The staff were very friendly and helpful, not only regarding the park but also providing information, tips and discount tickets to attractions in the area. The park is the closest to Colonial Williamsburg. Our site size was reasonably sized, even with our large unit and was tidy. Our only complaint was it could have been a bit more level, but we managed. The train tracks are next to the park and trains do go by, but that did not bother us. We would camp here again. We camped here in a Fifth Wheel."

March 10, 2012 - www.tripadvisor.com - "Very helpful for first timers!"

-4 out of 5 stars

The family owned Anvil campground is great for someone without a trailing car. There is a bus for $2 a person (all day transit) that will take you to the 'central hub'. From there you can easily and quickly transfer to the next line to take you to the historic sites.

The owner Ray was very helpful to us as we were traveling with a 38' Pace Arrow for the first time ever and truly had no idea how to connect, dump or get the generator going! Talk about novices..but Ray had patience, knowledge and enlisted the help of our neighbor to walk us through the process. Prior to arrival, Ray asked whether we had a Passport which would have resulted in a large discount so we contacted them, received a link to show at the campsite and Ray honored the 50% rate.

Now the slight downside (I really mean SLIGHT) is the train issue. There is a train track that runs very nearby the campsites but the only time it really would have affected us was sleeping. Having read the information about the train prior to arriving, we just bought earplugs and slept soundly and comfortably for 2 nights.

The little general store was filled with items that any camper would need and the outside showers (since we couldn't figure out how to get hot water!) were fabulously strong and very clean.

The overall experience was wonderful and when we return to Williamsburg we will definitely stay at Anvil again. We were there early March and the weather was mild, several sites were occupied and people were very friendly. There were swingsets and what looked like a fun summer activity area with a pool, horseshoe area and lots of 'green' space. While we were there, with the weather mild, Ray and his staff were planting and preparing for the summer rush! Enjoy the campsite and say hello!
